

Trans-formative Healing

A RETREAT of God, Faith, and PRIDE

w /Todd Keough

God's love is for everyone and the fact is that God is proud of all of us for who we are. This retreat is to move past the hate, and to heal the wounds of homophobia through faith and spirituality. This retreat is to help you move Jesus and God's love back into your life, because God's deepest desire is for you to be who you are and to be loved.

Where: All Pilgrims Church 500 Broadway East, Seattle, WA 98102

When: June 16, 2012 from 9am-1pm

Biography of Todd Keough

I have a MA in Religious Education with an emphasis and graduate certificate in spiritual direction from Fordham University; a graduate certificate in spiritual direction and retreats from Loyola University, and a certificate developing and running retreats. I have written and directed several retreats over the last seven years. I have been trained, developed and run retreats and reflections in: 12 step work, GLBTIQ, abandonment, youth, 19th annotations, homelessness, corporate, and self-awareness. My work in the GLBTIQ community is extensive and I love being able to bring faith, spirituality, and sexuality together to allow people to grow in their relationship with God. My belief is that homophobia can be combated with faith and spirituality. I am excited to be able to offer a retreat for PRIDE.
